PRESENTATION: Future World Vision: Infrastructure Reimagined

Our keynote speaker for the 2021 luncheon will be Robin Kemper. Robin has built a career with an array of diverse and extensive structural engineering experience in design, analysis, and forensics focused on buildings. Her work has included being a project manager of both structural engineering and multi-discipline projects ranging from field investigations to field inspections during construction. She is vastly experienced in new construction, additions to buildings, historic projects, structural condition surveys, analysis and retrofitting of existing buildings, response to failures, forensics, expert testimony, and installation of solar projects.

Mrs. Kemper is currently a professional engineer in NJ, PA, NY, MA, TX, OK and is a member of NCEES. She is also a LEED Accredited Professional and certified as a NJ Special Inspector.

NATIONAL ENGINEERS WEEK

National Engineers Week is an annual event to raise public awareness of engineers and the work they do. Founded in 1951 by the National Society of Professional Engineers, (NSPE), it is among the oldest of America's professional outreach efforts. For Engineers Week 1990, DiscoverE issued the first nationwide call to engineers to visit a classroom and introduce K-12 students to engineering. To celebrate this important milestone, Chattanooga E Week invests in programs and activities offering engineering experiences.

THANK YOU TO OUR 2021 PARTNERS!
